

Glenn Jacobs
Former Professional Wrestler and Current Mayor of Knox County, Tennessee

1. What motivated Glenn Jacobs to enter politics?

- A) His interest in professional wrestling
- B) His belief in preserving the American Dream
- C) His desire to travel the world
- D) His experience with professional football

Answer: _____

2. According to Glenn Jacobs, what is one of the most critical aspects of success in life?

- A) Technical expertise
- B) Interpersonal skills and influence
- C) Financial wealth
- D) Political connections

Answer: _____

3. What does Glenn Jacobs believe about failure?

- A) It is a sign to stop trying
- B) It should be avoided at all costs
- C) It is a part of personal growth and success
- D) It only happens to people who are unprepared

Answer: _____

4. What school of economics does Glenn Jacobs follow?

- A) Keynesian Economics
- B) Austrian Economics
- C) Marxist Economics
- D) Behavioral Economics

Answer: _____

5. What advice did Glenn Jacobs give to students interested in economic development?

- A) Focus on government policies
- B) Avoid entrepreneurship
- C) Become a businessperson or entrepreneur
- D) Work solely in politics

Answer: _____

6. What was one of Glenn Jacobs' most memorable WWE moments?

- A) Winning against The Rock
- B) His first WrestleMania match against The Undertaker
- C) Joining the WWE Hall of Fame
- D) Beating Seth Rollins as Kane

Answer: _____

7. What does Glenn Jacobs say about WWE matches and their physicality?

- A) They are completely staged with no real physical contact
- B) They involve real blows and can be physically demanding
- C) They are safer than playing football
- D) They do not require any teamwork

Answer: _____

Written Response Questions

8. What does Glenn Jacobs' story reveal about the importance of stepping outside your comfort zone? Provide examples from his career.

9. Explain the significance of the American Dream in Glenn Jacobs' life and political career. How does he connect it to his personal achievements?

10. Discuss how Glenn Jacobs' experiences in WWE prepared him for his role in politics. What skills did he transfer from one career to the other?
