

Jed Collins
Former NFL player and Current Financial Expert

1. What motivated Jed Collins to start his financial literacy journey?

- A) A mentor's advice to learn how to "fish"
- B) His NFL career
- C) His first paycheck experience
- D) All of the above

Answer: _____

2. What certification did Jed Collins pursue to enhance his financial knowledge?

- A) MBA
- B) Certified Financial Planner (CFP)
- C) CFA
- D) CPA

Answer: _____

3. What concept does Jed Collins emphasize for overcoming injuries and failures?

- A) Never trying again
- B) Taking small, consistent steps forward
- C) Avoiding risks entirely
- D) Ignoring feedback

Answer: _____

4. According to Jed Collins, what mindset is essential for success in professional sports and entrepreneurship?

- A) Avoiding pressure
- B) Welcoming pressure as an opportunity
- C) Prioritizing comfort
- D) Delegating responsibility

Answer: _____

5. What was a memorable moment for Jed Collins in his financial education mission?

- A) Winning a championship
- B) Helping a student open their first savings account
- C) Writing his first book
- D) Retiring from the NFL

Answer: _____

6. What principle does Jed Collins associate with "being a pro"?

- A) Avoiding mistakes
- B) Building trust and adding value
- C) Mastering one skill only
- D) Always seeking approval

Answer: _____

7. What does Jed Collins view as a key advantage of failure?

- A) It eliminates competition
- B) It provides feedback and lessons
- C) It avoids challenges
- D) It ensures success

Answer: _____

Written Response Questions

8. Jed Collins describes his journey of transitioning from the NFL to financial literacy. What lessons does he believe young people can learn about financial education from his experiences?

9. Jed Collins emphasizes the importance of pressure as a privilege. Reflect on a time when you faced pressure in your life. How did you approach it, and what did you learn from the experience?

10. Jed Collins encourages students to "steal from greatness" by observing successful people. How can you apply this idea in your own life, whether in academics, sports, or other activities?
