

Tracy Whittaker

CEO of Rick Harrison Productions and Executive Producer of Pawn Stars

1. What inspired Tracy Whittaker to pursue a career in television production?

- A. Interest in technology
- B. Love for storytelling and writing
- C. Background in science
- D. Desire to be an actor

Answer: _____

2. What is the name of the new show mentioned by Tracy Whittaker?

- A. Stars of America
- B. Pawn Stars Do America
- C. Roadshow USA
- D. America's Treasures

Answer: _____

3. Before working in television, what was Tracy Whittaker's primary interest?

- A. Radio broadcasting
- B. Print journalism
- C. Film directing
- D. Political science

Answer: _____

4. Which of the following best describes the nature of Tracy Whittaker's job as an executive producer?

- A. Predictable and routine
- B. Stressful and dynamic
- C. Solely focused on editing
- D. Primarily administrative

Answer: _____

5. According to Tracy Whittaker, what is essential for success in the TV production business?

- A. Specializing in one skill
- B. Ability to pivot and adapt
- C. Having a strong on-camera presence
- D. Technical knowledge only

Answer: _____

6. What did Tracy Whittaker study in college?

- A. Journalism and Communications
- B. Business Management
- C. Fine Arts
- D. Computer Science

Answer: _____

7. Which item mentioned by Tracy Whittaker had a significant historical value?

- A. A copy of the Declaration of Independence
- B. Ancient Roman coins
- C. Paintings from the Renaissance
- D. A first edition classic novel

Answer: _____

Written Response Questions

8. Discuss how Tracy Whittaker's passion for storytelling and writing influenced her career path in television production.

9. Describe the challenges and skills necessary for an executive producer in a dynamic environment like TV production, as explained by Tracy Whittaker.

10. Reflect on the importance of adaptability in a career, drawing from Tracy Whittaker's experiences and insights shared in the transcript.
