

Chad Wolf
Lead Singer - Carolina Liar

1. What inspired Chad Wolf to start playing music?

- a) Watching live concerts
- b) His grandmother playing piano in church
- c) Learning from his father's guitar skills
- d) Joining a school band

Answer: _____

2. What major producer helped elevate Chad's music career?

- a) Max Martin
- b) Quincy Jones
- c) Dr. Dre
- d) Rick Rubin

Answer: _____

3. What collaboration with Martin Garrix is mentioned in the interview?

- a) "Smile"
- b) "Stay"
- c) "Waves"
- d) "Rise"

Answer: _____

4. What advice does Chad give to aspiring musicians like Enrique?

- a) Focus on technical perfection from the beginning
- b) Write songs daily, even silly ones
- c) Avoid experimenting with different instruments
- d) Only play music from famous artists

Answer: _____

5. How does Chad describe his approach to learning musical instruments?

- a) He avoids unfamiliar instruments
- b) He experiments and tries to play anything he can get his hands on
- c) He only focuses on classical training
- d) He prefers to master one instrument at a time

Answer: _____

6. What style of music does Chad's son currently enjoy with him?

- a) Jazz
- b) Hip-hop and future music
- c) Classical and opera
- d) Reggae

Answer: _____

7. What is Chad's favorite song he has written?

- a) "Smile"
- b) "California Bound"
- c) "Show Me What I'm Looking For"
- d) "Rock and Roll All Night"

Answer: _____

Written Response Questions

8. Chad advises young musicians to "be themselves and love their music." Reflect on how staying true to oneself can help achieve success in any creative field.

9. In the interview, Chad emphasizes experimenting with instruments and writing songs daily. How can this approach benefit someone starting out in music or another creative endeavor?

10. Chad describes how his passion for music has evolved over time. How do you think passions can change as people grow older, and why is it important to keep pursuing them?
