

Margherita Fray
Survivor of the Italian Resistance in World War II

1. Where did Margherita Fray grow up?

- A) Rome
- B) Milan
- C) Naples
- D) Turin

Answer: _____

2. What was Margherita's role in the Italian Resistance during World War II?

- A) Soldier in the front lines
- B) Messenger transporting weapons and information
- C) Translator for Allied forces
- D) Nurse in a military hospital

Answer: _____

3. Why did Margherita's family face hardships during Mussolini's rule?

- A) They supported the fascist government
- B) Her father opposed fascism
- C) They were from a wealthy background
- D) They moved to another country during the war

Answer: _____

4. What was the name of the partisan group Margherita joined?

- A) The Red Brigade
- B) The Garibaldi Brigade
- C) The Italian Liberation Front
- D) The Blackshirts

Answer: _____

5. How did Margherita's artistic talents help her after immigrating to the United States?

- A) She started a business selling paintings
- B) She painted murals in her husband's restaurant
- C) She became a famous actress
- D) She opened an art gallery in New York

Answer: _____

6. What was one of Margherita's key messages to future generations?

- A) To seek revenge on those who caused war
- B) To focus on teaching peace and avoiding war
- C) To prioritize military strength
- D) To stay neutral in political matters

Answer: _____

7. What event marked the end of the war for Margherita and her community?

- A) The arrival of Soviet forces
- B) The surrender of the German troops in Turin
- C) The bombing of her city
- D) Mussolini's escape from Italy

Answer: _____

Written Response Questions

8. Describe the dangers Margherita faced as a messenger for the Italian Resistance. How did she manage to survive despite these dangers?

9. Margherita spoke about the struggles of adjusting to life in America. What challenges did she face, and how did she overcome them?

10. Reflect on Margherita's story and explain how her experiences during the war shaped her views on peace and conflict in the modern world.
