

Ramy Romany
Egyptologist, Documentarian, TV Host and Director

1. What motivated Ramy Romany to pursue Egyptology?

- A. Watching documentaries
- B. Family influence and early exposure to ancient Egyptian sites
- C. Interest in mummies
- D. A trip to the pyramids

Answer: _____

2. At what age did Ramy Romany start working on ancient Egyptian sites?

- A. 5
- B. 8
- C. 10
- D. 12

Answer: _____

3. What fields did Ramy Romany have to choose between for his education?

- A. Medicine and law
- B. Film or ancient Egyptian history and archaeology
- C. Engineering and mathematics
- D. Business and marketing

Answer: _____

4. What kind of documentaries did Ramy Romany's family produce?

- A. About modern Egypt
- B. Ancient Egyptian documentaries
- C. Travel documentaries
- D. Science fiction

Answer: _____

5. Which institutions did Ramy Romany create documentaries for?

- A. Local Egyptian TV
- B. National Geographic and BBC
- C. Netflix
- D. Youtube channels

Answer: _____

6. What did Ramy Romany often discover inside ancient tombs and tunnels?

- A. Gold and treasures
- B. New hieroglyphic inscriptions
- C. Mummies jumping at him
- D. Modern artifacts

Answer: _____

7. For how long did Ramy Romany study everything about ancient Egypt?

- A. 2 years
- B. 3 years
- C. 5 years
- D. 7 years

Answer: _____

**Written Response Questions****

8. Discuss how Ramy Romany's unique upbringing influenced his career choice in Egyptology and film.

---

---

9. Reflect on the importance of satellite imaging technology in archaeology as described by Ramy Romany. How does this technology change the way we discover and study ancient civilizations?

---

---

10. Ramy Romany highlighted that he still learns new things about ancient Egypt today. Write about the significance of lifelong learning, especially in fields like Egyptology, where new discoveries are constantly made.

---

---